May 10, 2023: CMA Fest 2023 Guides (How to find schedules, maps, FAQs, etc.)

May 10, 2023

Hello, BlueShoe/CMA Fest 2023 travelers:

Most of you are aware that the CMA has a dedicated app (CMA Connect) that you can download to your phone. We suggest you do so: you'll then have essential CMA Fest information (including performance schedules) at your fingertips when you're here in Nashville.

For maps, FAQs, schedules and details on what to expect during the Festival, the CMA's website (<https://cmafest.com/>) is where you should go first. Important topics that are covered:

- Lineup: you can search for artists by name A-Z or by day June 8, 9, 10, 11: <https://cmafest.com/lineup/#/schedule/byVenue>
- Stages schedule: you can see the lineup by venue such as Nissan Stadium or by time–day of the week and hour: <https://cmafest.com/stages-schedule/#/schedule/byVenue?tags=80,430>
- Tickets: what your 4-night stadium passes cover (scroll down page to see chart): <https://cmafest.com/tickets/>
- Stages: descriptions of the various stages that are part of CMA Fest: <https://cmafest.com/stages/>
- FAQs: essential information on everything from bag policies, prohibited items, weather shelters, lost and found, & more: <https://cmafest.com/faqs/>
- Maps: includes links to Nissan Stadium seating chart, Riverside Retreat map, downtown parking map, Fan Fair X map (coming soon), and more: <https://cmafest.com/maps/>
- Guide for first-time attendees: <https://cmafest.com/first-time-attendees/>
- Guide for returning CMA Fest attendees (what to expect): <https://cmafest.com/returning-attendees/>
