April 3, 2024: Nashville Airport Transportation Information

Gray Line Nashville's Black Car Service is offering a discount code for our BlueShoe clients

Hello, BlueShoe/CMA Fest 2024 travelers:

It is still a couple of months before you'll be arriving in Nashville for CMA Fest and far too early to begin packing. But we suspect you're already "mentally-packing." In the spirit of getting ready, we wanted to review transportation options for getting into Music City if you are flying in. As a bonus we have a special promo code created by Gray Line of Nashville especially for our BlueShoe clients that will get you 10% off their Black Car Service. You can read about that promo offer below, along with information on other BNA transportation options, including taxis, ride shares, and the city bus. Some of you have asked about hotel shuttles to and from the airport; the hotels that offer such shuttles tend to be near the airport (which is located 7.5 miles from downtown). None of our downtown hotel partners offer such shuttles, but there are plenty of other options and we'll outline them below.

Airport transportation

If you are arriving by plane, you may take a taxi from the airport to the hotel for approximately $30.00 one way, plus an additional passenger charge of $2 when accompanying the original passenger and proceeding to the same destination (according to the airport's website). A list of Nashville taxis can be found on the BNA's (Nashville International Airport) website:

<https://www.flynashville.com/ground-transportation/Pages/taxis.aspx>

Ride App Pick-Ups: (Lyft & Uber) are also listed on the BNA site.

WeGo Public Transit offers a bus service to and from the airport at a rock-bottom price: $2.00 each way! However, be aware that the bus will not stop at your individual hotel. It ends its airport run at the WeGo Central Station on 4th Ave N (this is close to the Courtyard Marriott and The Hermitage Hotel, but would probably be too far to walk, if you had a lot of luggage, to the Hampton Downtown, the Home2 Suites, Tru, and the Hampton Capitol View). The web page where you can find more information about the WeGo airport bus (and even purchase a ticket online) is here: <https://www.wegotransit.com/ride/maps-schedules/bus/18/>

All of the ground transportation options are outlined and explained on the BNA (Nashville Airport) website here: <https://www.flynashville.com/ground-transportation/Pages/default.aspx>

Private Car Services (with a special promotion from Gray Line's Black Car Service)

There are a number of private car companies in Nashville that provide airport and point-to-point transportation (below are three of many):

- Gray Line Nashville Black Car Service: <https://graylinetn.com/nashville-black-car-livery>
- Victory Ground Transportation: <https://drivenbyvictory.com/>
- Six in the City: <http://www.sixinthecitytn.com>

Promo Code for Special Discount from Gray Line's Black Car Service for BlueShoe Clients

Gray Line Nashville Black Car Service has created a promo code (BLUESHOE24) that you can use to receive 10% off the cost of their Black Car Service. If you'd like to book such a service please reach out to Deb Kosmicki at Gray Line and mention the discount code so that she can apply it to the booking. Her email address is dkosmicki@graylinetn.com.

We hope this information helps you plan the final leg of your trip to Nashville—getting from the airport to your hotel. Click HERE for a PDF of the WeGo Airport schedule.
